

Orrin Hatch, Republican senatorial candidate, attacked the Senate seniority system, saying that it served no useful purpose. He said that the 18 years spent by his opponent, Sen. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, in the Senate have not produced adequate representation for the state.

He said Utah needs representation on the Interior and Agriculture committees.